

SALMAGUNDI CLUB
CENTER FOR AMERICAN ART SINCE 1871

2010 SPRING AUCTIONS

Friday, March 12th, 8pm
Sunday, March 14th, 2pm
Thursday, March 18th, 8pm
On View: March 1st-18th

Located in New York City, the capital of the American art market, Salmagundi has built a reputation for offering art at auction prices to a broad base of buyers and consignors from around the world. Hundreds attend our auctions in person each year, and many more bid as absentees. The sale of the art is completely transparent. Half of each sale is paid directly to the artist, and the other half is utilized by Salmagundi as funds to help support its programming and organizational needs. All artwork is professionally mounted or framed and is wrapped neatly to protect it after purchase. An entire catalog of the works to be auctioned will be available for viewing soon online via our website.

Minimum Opening Bids:
Graphics & Photography $150.00
Painting: $300.00
Sculpture: $400.00

“Onions,” Eleanor Moore, oil

The Salmagundi Club continues to serve as a center for fine artists from New York and around the country, providing exhibitions of paintings, sculpture, and photography, conducting art classes, painting demonstrations, and art auctions throughout the year. The Salmagundi Club is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.
